

“Saffron Hall has given me so many memorable evenings. Nicola Benedetti giving her first-ever solo recital, the LSO’s debut, the incomparable Andras Schiff. It’s been wonderful.

Including Saffron Hall in my Will is my way of ensuring future generations can enjoy many more musical moments of such astonishing quality, just like I have done.”

Leaving a legacy to Saffron Hall

What does Saffron Hall mean to you?

For many, Saffron Hall is a special place.
A place of fun, of exploration, of inspiration.
A home of musical memories.

You can help safeguard the magic of Saffron Hall by leaving us a gift in your Will. Every contribution, large or small, will make a real difference, and will ensure that your love of music and the arts can live on for future generations to enjoy.

Once the needs of your family and friends are met, a gift left in your Will is a wonderful way to continue your tradition of support and make future world-class concerts, projects and events possible.

By committing to our future, you are giving generations to come the opportunity to experience the same joy that Saffron Hall has given you.

How your legacy gift will help

Your gift will protect and nurture the work of Saffron Hall Trust, for future generations to enjoy, by:

- Bringing world-class music and artists to Saffron Hall, reaching tens of thousands of people each year
- Inspiring young people to explore the arts, building their confidence and their talent
- Giving opportunities for emerging professional artists, enabling them to develop their experience and careers
- Providing unique projects that enable people from across our community to come together and participate in the arts

Leaving a gift to Saffron Hall Trust in your Will is easy to arrange and is one of the most flexible ways of giving.

We recommend that you seek the advice of a professional advisor who will be able to provide detailed guidance on the various types of legacy gifts. For example, you may wish to leave Saffron Hall Trust a proportion of your residuary estate, a specific sum, or the gift of an asset, such as stocks and shares.

If you have already written your Will and wish to include a gift to Saffron Hall Trust, you can simply make an addition by including a codicil, or note of amendment, to your existing Will.

Saffron Hall Trust is a registered charity, number 1153685. A legacy gift to us will be deducted from your estate before inheritance tax is calculated, thereby reducing the overall amount of inheritance tax payable.
